

Day 2

Read 1 Samuel 25:2, 18

In each of the verses, underline the numbers. Then on a sheet of paper, write each of the animals, food, and other things Nabal owned.

Nabal had a lot of things. A lot. But despite all he had, Nabal was NOT a peacemaker. In fact, he was the opposite: he proved he cared far more about being right and keeping all his stuff than he did being kind or caring for the same people who had cared for his men.

Day 3

Grab some tape of some kind and tape a circle on the floor (or rug, if you have hardwood floors).

The circle should be big enough to stand in.

Have you ever heard of a comfort zone? A comfort zone is a place where you feel, well...comfortable. It means you don't rock the boat. . . you don't stand up for others. . . you don't do anything to draw attention to yourself or challenge yourself.

Read the prayer below out loud. Step inside the circle as you begin your prayer; then follow your own words toward the end to step out.

~~~~~

Dear God, thank You for the story of Abigail that shows me that I can help others make peace. I admit that it's easier to sit back and let other people work out their problems, even if it means that someone might get hurt. Please give me the wisdom and motivation to be a peacemaker. As I step out of my comfort zone right now, I can picture myself as a peacemaker. I believe I can help others make peace, so help me do that this week. In Jesus' Name, I pray. Amen.

If you can, leave the tape circle on the floor to remind you that you can help others make peace.
