

Day 2

---

Read Matthew 21:1-11

Get a sheet of paper and something to draw with. While you are reading Matthew 21:1-11, as you come across the following words, pause and illustrate that word on the paper, starting on the left side of the sheet and moving across to the right. (The paper should be turned horizontally, with the longest sides on the top and bottom as you draw.)

- ▶ Mount/mountain
- ▶ Two disciples (stick figures are fine!)
- ▶ Donkey and colt
- ▶ Coats (show them on the road)
- ▶ Tree branches (show them on the road)

Now, using your drawing as a guide, find someone you can tell the story of Palm Sunday to.

Day 3

---

As Jesus entered Jerusalem on that day that we now call Palm Sunday, the crowds shouted and praised Him, saying,

“Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!”

Pick a spot—either inside or out—where you can walk around and say these words of praise as a prayer. Say them a few times, slowly, paying attention to each word and thinking about two things: 1) What those words must have meant to the people in Jerusalem that day as they worshipped Jesus, and 2) What those words mean to you as you speak them out loud to God now.
