

Day 2

Read Genesis 13:5-18

As you read Genesis 13:5-18, underline the problem that caused the argument between Abram and Lot's men.

Then circle the part where Abram shows Lot that he is more important to Abram than getting what is fair.

Lastly, draw a box around what God promises Abram he will receive one day.

Now, just because you choose peace over winning an argument doesn't mean that God will give you a massive family and lots of land. But when you let go of what's fair and instead choose to show someone you care more about them, you open the door for a deep and meaningful friendship!

Day 3

Why is it hard to give up what you think is fair?

There's probably nothing harder when it comes to peace than letting go of what's fair. Losing an argument is one thing, but losing out on something that you believe you deserve? That's super hard. One thing that can help when you're feeling frustrated by the lack of fairness in a situation is remembering that Jesus gave up His actual life so we could have a relationship with God forever. . . Then spend some time thanking God for sending Jesus and for the sacrifice that Jesus made. It will be hard to stay frustrated when you stay focused on Jesus and what He did! Use the following prompts to make your own prayer.

- Thank God for sending Jesus to be your Savior.
- Tell God about the unfair situation you're facing.
- Ask God to help you let go of your frustration and to choose your relationship with the person over your desire for fairness.
- Close by thanking Jesus for dying on the cross for Your sins, and for choosing His love for You over what was fair.
